Wray Institute News

The Institute Committee wish to give a huge thank you to the Wray Fair Committee and to everyone in the village who put out a scarecrow or helped in any way to make the Festival a success.

A special thank you to Simon Carruthers who as Chairman of the Wray Fair Committee worked tirelessly to put on the event which has benefitted the whole community and given lots of pleasure to visitors.

J. Wrigley (Secretary)

I would like to thank all those who sent me cards and good wishes on the celebration of my 100th Birthday.

Kathleen Bassenden

Church of the Good Shepherd, Lowgill

The PCC knows that there are people who are concerned and upset at the apparent neglect of our beautiful churchyard. This is not intended, and we hope by the time you read this the churchyard will be mown and tidied.

Those who normally cut the grass have had to contend with unusual weather conditions. This has resulted in sudden heavy growth of long grasses and flowers throughout the churchyard (not just the small area planned for the old churchyard)

Things should be back to normal soon. The churchyard is very uneven so please be careful, when tidying family graves.

Turned out nice again, didn't it? Once again we were lucky weather-wise on our July trip. We did have to go through mizzle on the tops, but the sun shone on us in Bedale and at Berry's Cafe in Swinthwaite. A good time was had by all – another success for Kath!

As a last resort only please, you can ring her on 015242 21845. We are looking forward to seeing you when we go to Astley Hall and Gardens and Great Eccleston Chippy on 13th August (members £6, non-members £8). Please note that we shall be leaving at 10am that day.

Games Evenings. We meet in Hornby Institute at 7pm on alternate Saturdays throughout the year for an evening of Whist and Dominoes. Admission (including light refreshments and 2 free raffle tickets) is only £2. Why not join us on 10th and /or 24th August? Everybody is very welcome.
