Wray Flower, Produce & Craft Show 2013.

The Show this year was a great success. Exhibits in the Vegetable section particularly were of outstanding quality.

My thanks to the judges and to Lesley Wright, Anne Marshall and John Ellison for their invaluable help. A special thank you to John Marshall for being such a splendid auctioneer.

Finally, a big thank you to all those who exhibited and made the show so successful, and to those who left their produce to be sold.

Judith Wrigley

Wray Village V Fells Cricket Match - (Saturday 24th August 2013)

A big thank you to everyone who took part in this year's cricket match which raised £270.00 for the Wray Church and Chapel.

A big thank you, to all the ladies from the church and chapel who provided those fantastic sandwiches and cakes for the players and spectators alike, luckily the weather held and the village won by 44 runs. Notable performances from the village team with the bat:

Alan Drinkall 25, Will Sayer 47, Matt Cannon 30 and Will Denby 27.

Fells: Top scorer; M. Ellershaw 50, Michael Preece 25 and a good knock from Mark Routledge 40, considering he wasn't available to play for the village as he was away on holiday!!! who was obviously tempted by a better offer from the Fells camp!!

Not such a good game for Chris Stafford who was run out for 2 then failed with the ball with figures of 0-29 and the vicar who was run out without scoring. Better luck next year!

A big thank you to Liz Whitfield, Margaret Wright and Wray Post Office and Hornby Butchers for the raffle prizes.

Jon Wright

Tatham Church PCC would like to thank everyone who gave jumble, bric-a-brac etc. and donations for our recent Grand Jumble Sale - it was a great success with an amazing result of £1,350. A big thank you to all the enthusiastic helpers and of course our customers who support us each year.

Victoria Institute - Caton

IT Course - Our Beginner IT course is scheduled to start again on Friday 1st November. It has been designed to help people with no experience of computing, as well as those with some knowledge but who need a confidence boost or refresher on Microsoft Office packages. The programme runs for 8 weeks, with each session lasting 2 hours, and costs £90. This is significantly cheaper than similar courses at colleges in Lancaster, yet all tuition is provided by a fully qualified IT Teacher. For those already on the waiting list, we will contact you.

Photocopying and Internet Services

The IT Room and Drop In services are available in the Victoria Institute. We have computers with Internet access, and a 'multi-functional' printer which also serves as a photocopier, scanner and fax. Paper sizes A4 and A3 can be printed in mono and full colour. Fairtrade tea and coffee are served, and local newspapers are always available for browsing.

Community Library

The Institute also houses a Library which is available during our normal opening hours. All books have been donated by the local community, and there is a good mix of titles and many "best sellers". Anyone is welcome to borrow the books, so please do call in for a browse.

Get in touch

For all queries on any of these items, please contact Judy Powell at the Institute on 01524 771733. We are open between 9.30 a.m. and 3.30 p.m., Monday to Friday, and there is a telephone answering service out of hours.
